Pasco Tax Collector Mike Fasano Announces the Retirement of
Assistant Manager Linda Storgaard

Pasco County Tax Collector Mike Fasano announces the retirement of longtime employee Linda Storgaard, assistant manager of the New Port Richey office located in the West Pasco Government Center. For 15 years Linda was a pillar of the New Port Richey office, well-known and well liked by all.

“Since the tax office started having Saturday hours Linda was my partner,” New Port Richey Office Manager Clare Casey states. “I have had the pleasure of working with Linda this past year on a daily basis as the office manager and will miss all the help she gave me. Linda will be missed by the staff and public that she worked so well with. I wish her much happiness and travel.”

“Linda was an excellent member of our office management team,” Tax Collector Mike Fasano comments. “She was a key member of a well-run and efficient team of professionals whose top priority is excellent customer service. Her kind demeanor and institutional knowledge will definitely be missed by both customers and colleagues alike. I know I speak for all members of the Tax Collector’s Office when I say we all wish her and her husband the very best as she enters this new and exciting time in her life.”

During a farewell ceremony Linda was presented with an award commemorating her career with the tax collector. The award states: “In appreciation and recognition of your courteous, professional, and dedicated service to the Citizens of Pasco County 1999 – 2014.”
