Pasco Tax Collector Mike Fasano Announces Grand Opening & Ribbon Cutting of Wesley Chapel Office

Pasco County Tax Collector Mike Fasano announces that the grand opening for the Wesley Chapel tax collector's office will be August 4, 2014 at 10:00 AM. The Wesley Chapel Chamber of Commerce will be hosting the grand opening and ribbon cutting event.

As soon as Mike Fasano took over as Pasco County's tax collector he saw the need for an office primarily dedicated to serving the communities of South East Pasco County. Wesley Chapel is the ideal location to serve residents of that community in addition to Zephyrhills, Lutz and surrounding areas. Residents from Pasco County and nearby communities are welcome to visit the Wesley Chapel office.

"The new Pasco County Tax Collector office in Wesley Chapel is long overdue," states Deputy Tax Collector Billy Poulos. "The area has seen a tremendous amount of growth and deserves to have our services at its doorstep. For far too long, the residents of Wesley Chapel have had to drive far distances to visit our offices. Those days are long gone as we open what is to be the new standard in Tax Collector offices. This is the benchmark by which all other Tax Collector offices will be measured; with its wide concourses, sleek and modern look, and close proximity to a major population hub. The residents of Wesley Chapel, as well as the rest of the County deserve a state of the art facility, which will help us deliver our services effectively and efficiently.”

The Wesley Chapel office will be a full-service office which includes residential and commercial property tax, business receipt tax, drivers license testing and renewal, automobile, vessel and motorcycle registration and title work, birth certificates, and other services.

The office is located in Compark 75 at 4610 Pet Lane, which is off Wesley Chapel Boulevard in Wesley Chapel. The public is invited and encouraged to attend the grand opening event.
